Smith Graduate Exchange Fact Sheet 2023/24

Queen's University, home of Smith School of Business, has a rich academic tradition dating back to 1841. Located in Kingston, Ontario — one of Canada's most vibrant small cities — Queen's is consistently ranked among Canada's very best universities.

Centre for International Management (CIM)

The Centre for International Management at Smith School of Business coordinates the global activities within the school. This includes managing relationships with business school partners and overseeing our suite of exchange and double degree programs at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Orientation

Smith School of Business runs a mandatory orientation for all incoming exchange students. Orientation provides a warm welcome to our campus and academic programs, student societies, and support. It is an opportunity to meet staff from the Centre for International Management and network with other exchange students, while enjoying fun and productive activities!

Key Features:

- Exceptional atmosphere, personal attention, highly engaged faculty, and a powerful sense of community
- Areas of focus: entrepreneurship, social impact, investment banking, accounting, marketing, consulting, international business, human resources and more
- Learn from award-winning professors and industry experts
- Dynamic learning: classes, team challenges, presentations, consulting projects and living business cases
- Global business content and globally connected
- Teams, clubs, competitions, sports, and volunteering opportunities for a well-rounded experience
- Personal support from staff, academic advisors and personal counsellors committed to your success

Living in Kingston

Finding appropriate living arrangements in Kingston can be a challenge, especially in the fall term. We recommend that you arrive to Kingston at least one week before your classes begin in order to find adequate accommodations.

For more information on finding accommodation, click here or contact Off-Campus Living Advisor at OCLA@queensu.ca. You may also find it useful to consult these local maps to help you determine the proximity of these properties to Queen's campus.

Living Expenses & Housing (per term/4 months)

Off-Campus Housing (includes utilities)	$ 2,880 - $5,520 (approximately)
Food	$1,255 (approximately)
Textbooks & Supplies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MBA (Summer and Fall) • MIB (Winter) 	$125 mandatory material fee per course
Telephone	$150 to $250 (approximately)
Clothing	$300 (approximately)
Miscellaneous (not including additional traveling)	Minimum $1,125

Fees are subject to change. Fees are based on the 2022-2023 academic year.

Health Insurance

MANDATORY | University Health Insurance Plan (UHIP)

UHIP medical insurance offers coverage for basic services like emergency hospital visits and physical examinations. UHIP does not cover supplementary medical services, such as dental work or physiotherapy. International students must have primary health insurance provided by UHIP for the duration of their time in Canada. Fees are subject to change from year to year.

	One Term
UHIP Medical Insurance (mandatory)	$252

Fees are based on the 2023-2024 academic year and are subject to change. Mandatory fees will automatically be applied to each student's account.

OPTIONAL | Supplementary Medical Insurance

Supplementary insurance is available and covers some services such as a portion of the cost of prescription medicine, physiotherapy, chiropractic care, eye examinations, dental work, vision care, travel coverage, and other services. Supplementary health plans are administered by our student government offices: Alma Mater Society \(AMS\) for MBA students and Society of Graduate and Professional Students \(SGPS\) for MIB students. We strongly recommend exchange students purchase supplementary insurance coverage for Canada through the Queen's Student Government Offices or the provider of their choice in their home country or in Canada.

Student Services

Student Card: Exchange students receive a Queen's student card and have the same rights and privileges using this card as a full-time, domestic Queen's student. This includes access to the facilities listed below:

On-Campus Facilities and Networks: Queen's offers a range of on-campus facilities including:

- Athletic and Recreation Centre
- Campus Bookstore
- Libraries
- Student Wellness Services
- Student Academic Success Services
- Dining Halls and Eateries
- Queen's School of English
- Queen's University International Centre \(QUIC\)
- Smith Connect

Computer Services: Goodes Hall, home to Smith School of Business, has wireless network access throughout the building, and a full-service IT department.

Visa and Study Permit

Entry Visa: Citizens of certain countries and territories will require either a Visa or an Electronic Travel Authorization \(eTA\) to visit Canada.

Study Permit: A study permit is required for anyone who wants to study in Canada for six months or more.

Kingston

Kingston is Canada's first capital and a rich cultural city, located in the heart of Eastern Ontario, a short drive away from Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal in Canada, and close to New York City or Boston in the U.S.A.

Kingston is known as a student-centered town with nearly 30,000 students. With more restaurants per capita than almost any other city in Canada, even the most discerning of foodies will find some new favourites here.

The majority of Queen's students live within a 15-minute walk to campus, eliminating the time-consuming commutes associated with universities in larger urban centres. This closeness creates a strong sense of community amongst our students that is truly unique.

Acknowledgement of Territory

Smith School of Business at Queen's University is situated on traditional Anishinaabe and Haudenosaunee Territory. We are grateful to be able to live, learn and play on these lands.
